

I would like to send a comment to support the "Do Not Call List" in NJ. It has been wonderful not having as many calls at home, disturbing dinner and interrupting treasured personal time with family. I would like to see this law kept in tact.